Luke 19:28 - 48

Jesus weeps over Jerusalem

Jesus cleanses the Temple

After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

As he approached Bethphage and Bethany at the hill called the Mount of Olives,

he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say, 'The Lord needs it.'" Those who were sent ahead went and found it just as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" They replied, "The Lord needs it."

They brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt and put Jesus on it. As he went along, people spread their cloaks on the road. When he came near the place where the road goes down the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began joyfully to praise God in loud voices for all the miracles they had seen:

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!"
"Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

MESSIAH

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!" "I tell you," he replied, "if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out."

As he approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it and said, "If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace--but now it is hidden from your eyes.

The days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment against you and encircle you and hem you in on every side. They will dash you to the ground, you and the children within your walls. They will not leave one stone on another, because you did not recognize the time of God's coming to you."

When Jesus entered the temple courts,
he began to drive out those who were selling.
"It is written," he said to them, "'My house will be a house of prayer'; but you have made it 'a den of robbers.'"

Every day he was teaching at the temple.

But the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the leaders among the people were trying to kill him. Yet they could not find any way to do it, because all the people hung on his words.

Jesus openly offered himself as Messiah:
– King, Priest, and Prophet

His action provoked a reaction
(It exposed people's hearts)

There were terrible consequences in rejecting him

LIFE

He still comes to us to call us to accept him as:-

King (He is Lord of All)

- obey him – he knows best anyway

Priest (The Saviour)

- he cleanses the place where God is able to dwell
- confess your sin, repent, receive his forgiveness and invite his Holy Spirit to rule in your heart

Prophet (“My sheep recognise my voice”)

- listen to his teaching
- accept it and build your life on it

Jesus will offer a second and final opportunity to Jerusalem
before the end
