

PALM SUNDAY

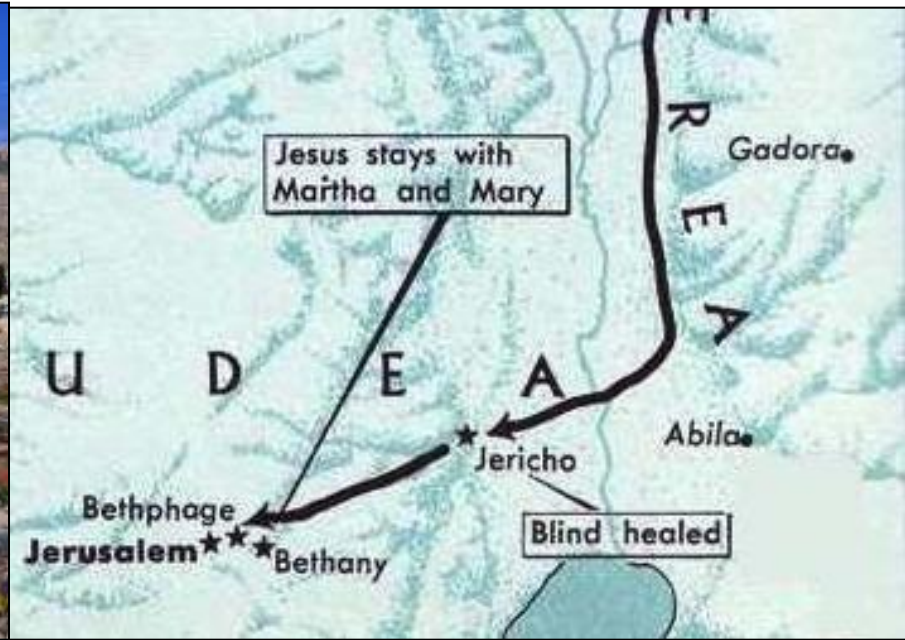

Mark 11:1 -11

As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.'" They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. As they untied it, some people standing there asked, "What are you doing, untying that colt?" They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go.

When they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut in the fields. Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted, "Hosanna!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!" "Hosanna in the highest heaven!" Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple courts. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

Mark 11:1 -11

As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives,

Jesus sent two of his disciples, saying to them,
"Go to the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it,
you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden.
Untie it and bring it here."

If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.'

They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. As they untied it, some people standing there asked, "What are you doing, untying that colt?" They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go.

When they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, he sat on it.

Many people spread their cloaks on the road,
while others spread branches they had cut in the fields.

Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted,
"Hosanna!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!"
"Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple courts.
He looked around at everything.

but since it was already late,
he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

We can easily forgive a child who is afraid of the dark; the real tragedy of life is when men are afraid of light.

- Plato

He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—

John 1:11-12

Jesus came to offer himself as their Messiah,
King and Saviour.

He is still offering himself to us by his Holy Spirit.
